WILLSON AT MAYSVILLE

Republican Nominee For Governor to Open the Campaign in His Native City

Louisville Herald.

Augustus E. Willson, Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, will begin his campaign about July 10th by a speech at Maysville, his birthplace. Though some of the presumptuous Indiana papers have claimed that Mr. Willson is a Hoosier, he admits only having lived there, and declares that he was born in the Ninth district of Kentucky.

Mr. Willson has planned to speak also, at Vanceburg and Greensburg, both in the Ninth district, and then to reach the extreme Eastern portion of the state, where he will speak during the warmest weather. He has planned a thorough canvass of the state, and will be busy from the time the actual campaign begins until the day of election.

He will take a brief respite before plunging into work, and for about two weeks after a meeting of the candidates in his office, Wednesday, he expects to secure a vacation and get into as good physical condition as possible.

An interesting statement, which was made on good authority yesterday, is to the effect that former Governor Bradley will take the stump for Mr. Willson and will speak in several of the larger cities. Owing to the fact that his throat has troubled him somewhat, however, it is expected that he will limit the number of his addresses. His appearance means many a vote for the ticket.

Though the health of John W. Yerkes has not been good recently, the Boyle county man has said that he will exert himself to the utmost in behalf of the ticket, and if possible he, too, will speak from the hustings in favor of Mr. Willson and the rest of the ticket.

DO the people of the country who believe in President ROOSEVELT and his policies, indorse the action of Senator FORAKER, who boldly and brazenly puts himself upon record as opposing many of the most popular of the President's measures? Mr. FORAKER seems to be deliberately at work trying to block ROOSEVELT in his dealings with the railroads and other trusts; and as to Judge TAFT's candidacy for President, he is systematically endeavoring to array the colored vote of the U. S. against the Secretary. FORAKER is now fighting for his official life, and in the mad desire of his conceited demagoguery he would sacrifice the success of the Republican party next year to carry his point. The President and Judge TAFT are fully aware of the political situation, and that FORAKER, in his desperation and determination to sidetrack the Taft sentiment, is ready to sacrifice any principle to win out.

OLD BACHELORS

Should Be Oslerized or Taxed Off the Earth, Says The Ledger Reporter.

Among the very few things in Kentucky that is free from taxation are the old bachelors, and if there is one thing above another that needs to be taxed it is certainly these selfish old curmudgeons.

There are quite a number of this class here in Maysville who are extremely nice fellows otherwise and its a burning shame that they have not ere this taken unto themselves a wife in the person of one of the many charming and eligible women to be found in this city.

The old bachelor is becoming entirely too numerous for the good of the country at large and something will have to be done to bring them to a realization of what was and is expected of them. It is said that it is not good for man to be alone, he needs to have a helpmeet, were it not so in the beginning God would not have created man and woman.

It is never to late to mend matters and the next Legislature ought to pass a stringent law in regard to bachelors. The man who doesn't marry should be so heavily taxed he would be finally compelled to.

When a man excuses his bachelorhood because he did not meet the "right" person, you may put it down that he is too lazy or selfish to seek her.

When a man arrives at the age of 30 and still remains single he ought to be given his choice of one of three things—either marry, pay a heavy tax, or be Oslerized.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

BACKACHE.

I can sympathize with a sufferer from this awful symptom of weak kidneys. That soreness and pain in the small of the back tells too plainly of serious trouble behind it. It's not a hot water bottle or a plaster you need. That won't cure diseased kidneys. It may relieve you for a time it's true but why mask the real cause and allow the trouble to grow? Don't do it. Weak kidneys can be cured but Bright's disease, which always follows neglect of them cannot. Go and get a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery and Cooper's Quick Relief and use them faithfully. Your backache will disappear because your kidney trouble is corrected—not for a day but for good. When your kidneys are in "ship-shape" there will be nothing more to cause it.

Here's a letter from a man who suffered for years in this way and took my advice: "I have been in such bad health for some years that I finally had to give up work. I suffered from kidney trouble. My back was so sore and lame that I could scarcely get up and down. My stomach was also out of order and my nervous system broken down. I have been using the Cooper medicines for one week and actually feel like a new man. My food digests perfectly. The soreness and pain has entirely gone from my back and my kidneys are in fine shape. The medicine has strengthened me wonderfully and I cheerfully give you this testimonial for publication." Mr. P. Leonard, 49 School St., Allegheny, Pa.

We have heard a number of favorable comments on the Cooper preparations from people who have purchased them from us.

GOT THE REWARD

A Boy With His Think Tank and His Little Hatchet

The many homeless and worthless dogs infesting the city, recalls an incident that occurred thirty-eight years ago when Judge W. P. Coons was Mayor of the city. In order to rid the town of the superabundance of canines Council passed an ordinance offering a reward of 25 cents for every dog scalp brought to the Mayor's office, which resulted in diminishing the dog supply to a considerable extent.

The story goes that one morning a small Negro boy leading a dog by a rope, approached Mayor Coons and demanded the reward of 25 cents offered for dog scalps. His Honor informed the boy that the dog was not in proper condition—that it was decidedly too much dog—that it was only the scalp that was wanted. The little one walked off disappointed, but soon afterwards walked up with a dog's head wrapped in a paper, and carrying a hatchet in his hand.

He got the reward. It would not be a bad idea to offer a reward of 25 cents for a few scalps in these days of dog plentitudeness.

NOT JUST AT THAT TIME.

Editor Thought He Could Get Along Without Article.

The story is told of a writer who, through boldness in attacking the established order of things, had considerable vogue for a short time. In the midst of his notoriety he decided that he would contribute to a certain well-known magazine, in whose pages he had not yet been represented. He waited on the editor, and found him immersed in some hurried writing. "Ah, Mr. Blank," said the author, with that immunity from modesty which distinguished him, "you want an article from me." "Indeed?" queried the editor, going on with his writing. "Indeed?" "One article to begin with," pursued the author. "And I am willing to do it for you in spite of my work." "Indeed?" said the editor, as before. "I should say," followed up the author, "that for such an article as I have in mind, startling and original, I will close with you for $1,000." The editor's pen drove on. "Close with me!" he murmured. "Close! Will you kindly close the door as you go out?"

YANKEE INGENUITY NOT DEAD.

Ample Proof of Its Possession in State of Connecticut.

William G. Ward, a merchant, recently had a stove, in which a coal fire was burning, moved with other goods from his old home, on Platt's Hill, to his present apartment. He did not want the trouble of making a new fire, thereby further exemplifying his Yankee ingenuity. While driving through North Hartland, a farming village 13 miles distant from here, he stopped at the home of E. J. Barnes to get warm. He said he sold pianos, and Mr. Barnes became interested. Finally Mr. Barnes said he wanted to hear the tone of the instrument before he made a bargain. Stepping to the telephone, Ward called up his store here, had a $350 instrument rolled up close to the telephone transmitter and then ordered a saleswoman, Miss Elizabeth Hammett, to play a few selections, which she did. The music over the wire enthralled the family, the deal was closed and the piano was shipped to the Barnes farm.—Winsted (Conn.) Cor. New York World.

We're All Leather Eaters. "And then," said the Arctic explorer, "I ate my leather belt." "Pooh! What of that? Every mother's son of us eats a pair of shoes a year." The explorer frowned. "This," he began, "is no laughing—" But the scientist interrupted him. "I am not jesting, sir. I speak the solemn truth. What is leather? Is it not albumen and tannin? Well, when you add milk to your tea or coffee the tannin of the one and the albumen of the other unite, and leather results. The leather is in minute particles. Nevertheless it is there. And down it goes. All who drink tea or coffee daily," the scientist concluded, "consume in a year enough leather to make a pair of shoes." The explorer sneered. "To resume," he said, "I then ate the lining of—" etc.

Has One Cent for J. P. Morgan. If Mr. John Pierpont Morgan of Broad and Wall streets will acknowledge the letter sent him by State Treasurer Hauser recently he can make a cent. Mr. Morgan recently sent his check for $122.23 to the state comptroller in payment of taxes on land he owns in the Adirondacks. The routine of checking up his obligation brought to light the fact that Mr. Morgan only owed $122.22. The comptroller notified the state treasurer, and the latter sent Mr. Morgan a letter advising him of the fact. As soon as Mr. Morgan replies the state treasurer will send him a check five inches long by two inches deep for the sum of one cent.

When He Really Begins. A touring company had arrived at a town and were due to open that night, when it was discovered that the trombone was ill. A local substitute was provided and the performance was given. At the conclusion the conductor summoned the newcomer to him. "Look here," he said, "you must work, you know. I didn't hear much of that trombone of yours to-night." "To-night," replied the man, loftily, "I was out of form. But you wait till to-morrow, when I really begin to play. You won't be able to hear any of the other fellows then."

Very Appropriate. A certain officer who had by no means distinguished himself in the South African war retired from the service and built himself a villa in a remote spot on the coast of Devonshire. He was showing it to a friend one day, and remarked: "The difficulty I have is about a name for the house. I should like to hit upon something suitable—something appropriate to my military career, you know." "I see," replied his friend; "then why not call it 'The Retreat'?"—London Tit-Bits.

Dog Checked at Theater. For the first time in history, so said the wisacres, a dog was checked in the coat-room of a New York Theater the other night. It happened at the Herald Square. Two women entered the theater and went immediately to the retiring room near the lobby. One of them had carried in a bulldog under her opera cloak. She asked whether she could have him checked, and checked he was, like a cane or umbrella, until the end of the performance.—N. Y. Times.

At Pittsburgh, it is proposed by specialists on rivers to plant at least 2,000,000,000 trees to ward off floods in Western Pennsylvania. The scheme entails an appalling amount of labor and even then will not accomplish any material good, according to the experts, for at least fifteen years. The combined basins of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers comprehend a territory of nearly 20,000 square miles in Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Western New York and Maryland. During the last session of Congress $25,000 was appropriated to make the initial experiment under the auspices of the Forestry Bureau.

2 CENTS A MILE

July 1st on All Railroads in the United States—Officials Accede to Popular Demand

The Chicago Inter Ocean of Saturday says: Passenger rates on all railroads of the United States will be reduced to two cents a mile. The lowering of the price and complete abolition of the old three-cent rates will begin on July 1st.

This was the decision reached in Chicago yesterday after a long and heated discussion by the leading railroad Presidents of all the Western and transcontinental roads. It was not a formal agreement, but is equally binding for two large roads doing a transcontinental business are said to have served an ultimatum to others that they would put the rate into effect immediately.

Following the meeting, officials of several of the roads admitted that they had been forced to bow to public opinion and anti-railroad legislation. They said that no further fight would be made on the two-cent laws already passed and that the roads would accept the inevitable.

Among those who are said to have attended the secret meeting were President B. L. Winchell, of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and President A. J. Earling, of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

The kidneys are essential organs for keeping the body free from impurities. If they should fail to work death would ensue in very short time. Inflammation or irritation caused by some feminine derangement may spread to some extent to the kidneys and affect them. The cause can be so far removed by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that the trouble will disappear.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, swelling of the limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It may be the means of saving her life. Read what this medicine did for Kate A. Hearn, 520 West 47th Street, New York, who writes:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I owe a debt of gratitude to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it has saved my life. I suffered with Kidney trouble, irregularities and painful periods, and my blood was fast turning to water. I used your medicine for some time and it has made me strong and well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs cures Female Complaints, such as Falling and Displacements, and Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility and invigorates the whole system. For derangement of the Kidneys in either sex Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free.

The Kentucky bluegrass seed harvest, instead of being a failure, is going to produce double the crop this year that was expected. One Bourbon county farmer said he anticipated a crop from his fields of 1,500 bushels, but that it would run almost double that quantity. In one pasture containing 97 acres he gathered 1,357 bushels which he sold at 50 cents per bushel or a return of nearly $7 an acre.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Maysville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Maysville are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy.

Here is an example worth reading: John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 and they stopped an attack of backache which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciates the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
